

FEDERAL UNIVERSITY OF ALAGOAS PRO-RECTORATE FOR RESEARCH AND GRADUATE STUDIES Graduate Studies Coordination

NOTICE 05/2026–PPGP/PROPEP-CPG/UFAL

OPENING OF THE SELECTION PROCESS FOR THE MASTER'S COURSE AND FOR THE DOCTORAL COURSE IN PSYCHOLOGY

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Pro-Rectorate for Research and Graduate Studies and the Coordination of the Stricto Sensu Graduate Program in Psychology at the Federal University of Alagoas – UFAL hereby make public, through this Notice, the opening of the application, selection, and enrollment process for candidates to their Master's and Doctoral Courses in Psychology, for the first semester of 2027, with maximum completion periods of twenty-four (24) months for the Master's degree, and forty-eight (48) months for the Doctoral degree, observing the aspects named below. This Notice is valid for the period between its publication and the end of enrollments in the Program.

The Master's and Doctoral Courses of the Graduate Program in Psychology – PPGP/UFAL are structured into two Research Lines:

- A. Research Line 1: Subjectivities, Politics and Psychosocial Processes
- B. Research Line 2: Health, Clinic and Psychological Practices

1. THE SELECTION PROCESS

1. The Selection Process for the Master's level and for the Doctoral level covered by this Notice provides for the admission of students for the 2027.1 academic period, aiming to identify candidates who correspond to the academic proposal of the Program and to the profile of its Research Lines, in accordance with the totality and distribution of the offer of vacancies by the [Research Lines].
2. It is not permitted for a student to pursue two graduate degrees of the same level simultaneously at UFAL. If a candidate is approved and classified and is currently enrolled in a graduate degree of the same level, they will not be able to complete [the enrollment].
3. A central committee, appointed by the Coordination of PPGP/UFAL and the faculty members of the respective Research Lines, will coordinate the Selection Process through the stages of Analysis of the Written Research Pre-Project in Portuguese, the candidate's presentation and oral examination, and Analysis of the [Curriculum].

4. The Selection Process for the Master's and Doctoral degrees includes the following stages:
 - 1st stage – Analysis and Homologation of applications (eliminary);
 - 2nd stage – Analysis of the Written Research Pre-Project (eliminary and classificatory);
 - 3rd stage – Presentation and Oral Examination of the candidate (eliminary and classificatory);
 - 4th stage – Analysis of the Curriculum [Lattes].
5. The admission of the candidate approved for the Master's Course or the Doctoral Course will respect the final classification order and the offer of vacancies by research line (ANNEX A), following the enrollment calendar of the [Program].

2. OF THE VACANCIES

1. The following vacancies will be offered:
 - Line 1 – Master's – 22 (twenty-two) vacancies
 - Line 2 – Master's – 16 (sixteen) vacancies
 - Line 1 – Doctoral – 14 (fourteen) vacancies
 - Line 2 – Doctoral – 12 (twelve) vacancies
2. In total, there are 38 (thirty-eight) vacancies linked to the two Research Lines of PPGP/UFAL for the Master's Course, and 26 (twenty-six) vacancies will be offered, linked to the two Research Lines for the Doctoral Course.
3. There is no obligation to fill all the vacancies offered in this Notice.
4. The vacancies will be distributed as follows:
 - 4.1 Master's: 14 (fourteen) vacancies for open competition and 24 (twenty-four) vacancies for the Quota System and/or servers of the [University]:
 - 20% of the vacancies (8) for Black candidates (Black and Brown/Pardo);
 - 10% of the vacancies (4) for Indigenous candidates;
 - 10% of the vacancies (4) for Trans People (Transgender, Transsexual and Travesti), refugees, and settled persons (assentados);

- 10% of the vacancies (4) for candidates with disabilities (RESOLUTION No. 82/2022-CONSUNI/UFAL, of September 6, 2022);
- 10% of the vacancies (4) in total for UFAL servers.

4.2 Doctoral: 09 (nine) vacancies for open competition and 17 (seventeen) vacancies for the Quota System and/or UFAL servers:

- 20% of the vacancies (5) for Black candidates (Black and Brown/Pardo);
 - 10% of the vacancies (3) for Indigenous candidates;
 - 10% of the vacancies (3) for Trans People (Transgender, Transsexual and Travesti), refugees, and settled persons (assentados);
 - 10% of the vacancies (3) for candidates with disabilities (RESOLUTION No. 82/2022-CONSUNI/UFAL, of September 6, 2022);
 - 10% of the vacancies (3) in total for UFAL servers.
5. If there are not enough approved Black, Indigenous, persons with disabilities, trans people, refugees, settled persons and/or UFAL servers to occupy the reserved vacancies, these will be reverted to open competition, being occupied by the other approved candidates, according to the classification order in the Selection Process governed by this Notice and in accordance with the vacancies [available].
 6. All those competing for the general vacancies and for the quota vacancies offered by the Program are required to complete all stages of the selection process.
 7. The distribution of advisors will be carried out after the publication of the final result.

4. OF THE APPLICATIONS

1. Application in the Selection Process implies knowledge and tacit acceptance of the conditions established in the full text of this Notice and its Annexes. The candidate formally declares that they agree, at the time of application, with adherence and commitment to observe articles 297-299 of the Brazilian Penal Code and that they are in accordance with the norms of this [Notice].

2. The application of a candidate who uses identification data of third parties to carry out their [application] will be canceled.
3. Graduates holding a higher education diploma issued by official institutions recognized by the Ministry of Education (MEC), as well as students in the final semester of courses at official institutions recognized by the MEC, may apply for the selection at the Master's level, provided they complete their undergraduate degree before enrollment in the graduate course offered herein, upon presentation of a Diploma or Certificate of Completion at the time of enrollment in the [course].
4. Graduates holding a higher education diploma and a Master's degree issued by official institutions recognized by the MEC, as well as students in the final semester of Master's courses at official institutions recognized by the MEC, may apply for the selection at the Doctoral level, provided they complete the Master's degree before enrollment in the graduate course offered herein, upon presentation of a Diploma or Certificate of Completion at the time of enrollment in the [course].
5. International students interested in applying must meet specific established criteria. Admission is only permitted for those linked to agreements previously signed with Brazilian agencies or who are granted study scholarships by their countries of origin. The observance of these conditions is essential for the application process and aims to ensure alignment with institutional guidelines and current international cooperation agreements. At the time of application, they must present a Passport, RNE (National Registry of Foreigners) or similar document; and other documents required in this notice, according to the [level].
6. Applications will be carried out exclusively via the Internet, through the electronic address: <http://sigaa.sig.ufal.br/sigaa/public/home.jsf> from 09/11/2026 to 09/25/2026 until 11:59 p.m. (local time).
Sole Paragraph: Candidates must apply by Research Line, indicating, at the time of application, the chosen line and the intended advisor. All requested documents must be digitized, saved in PDF and electronically attached at the virtual address indicated in the main text of this article. Instructions manual for the [application] is provided in ANNEX L.
7. To apply, the candidate must fill out the Application Form and the Application Questionnaire accessed on the electronic page of the Integrated System for

Management of Academic Activities (SIGAA – UFAL):
<http://sigaa.sig.ufal.br/sigaa/public/home.jsf>, according to the step-by-step indicated in ANNEX [L].

5. OF THE DOCUMENTATION

1. At the time of application (ANNEX L), candidates must attach the documents listed below in the Integrated System for Management of Academic Activities (SIGAA – UFAL):

- A. Attach 01 (one) current 3x4 photo in PDF file;
- B. Identity card front and back (RG or CNH) for Brazilians or, in the case of foreigners, passport, RNE or similar document, according to SIGAA;
- C. Digital copy of the CPF (if the CPF is not on the RG);
- D. Candidates in the category of UFAL servers must attach a document proving the employment relationship with the institution and the Self-Declaration Form for competition of the vacancies destined for this category (ANNEX J);
- E. Candidates for the quota system, in the Black category (Black or Brown/Pardo), must attach the Self-Declaration Form for competition of the quota vacancies (ANNEX D) or (ANNEX E – Quilombola). Black candidates are considered those who self-declare as Black or Brown/Pardo at the time of application in the Selection Process, according to the color or race question used by the Brazilian Institute of Geography and Statistics (IBGE), and who have the veracity of the self-declaration confirmed by the Hetero-identification Committee designated by the Pro-Rectorate for Graduate Studies and Research (PROPEP/UFAL) for this purpose. Black candidates whose self-declaration is denied by the Hetero-identification Board will, if they have sufficient grade, compete in the open competition. However, they will be eliminated from the selection process if they apply as a quota candidate and refuse to present any documentation requested by the Hetero-identification Board. Complementary guidelines and the result will be published during the selection process on the PPGP page - Institute of Psychology/UFAL website:
- F. Candidates for the quota system in the Indigenous category must attach the Self-Declaration Form for competition of the quota vacancies (ANNEX F) and must present one of the following documents: a) declaration of belonging issued by Indigenous leadership; or b) document issued by the National Indian Foundation (FUNAI). Indigenous candidates whose self-declaration is denied by the Selection Committee will, if they have sufficient grade, compete in the open competition. Complementary guidelines and the result will be published during the selection process on the PPGP page in Psychology – Institute of Psychology/UFAL website: <https://ip.ufal.br/pt-br/pos-graduacao/pospsico/selecao/regular-mestrado-e-doutorado>;

G. Candidates for quota vacancies for persons with disabilities must attach to the Questionnaire the Self-Declaration Form for competition of the quota vacancies and the medical report (ANNEX G) and the Form for Biopsychosocial Assessment (ANNEX H). Furthermore, they must request in the Questionnaire, if necessary, assistance and/or support to ensure full accessibility to the selection process and the completion of the course;

H. Candidates for quota system vacancies for Trans people (transgender, travesti and transsexual) must attach to the Questionnaire the Self-Declaration Form of Trans person (ANNEX I);

I. Candidates for quota system vacancies for refugees must attach to the Questionnaire a document issued by the National Committee for Refugees (CONARE), duly recognized by the Brazilian government;

J. Identification of the candidate's name is prohibited in any part of the Pre-Project. Communication will be carried out through the candidate's application number;

M. The candidate is responsible for the integrity of the information presented in the [application];

N. For both Master's and Doctoral applicants, the Pre-Project must present the following structure:

- a) Cover containing: Title of the Research Pre-Project; Research Line to which the Pre-Project intends to be linked; and Name of the intended advisor;
- b) Justification for the choice of research line, relating the Research Pre-Project to the academic work developed by the intended advisor;
- c) Abstract;
- d) Introduction: delimitation of the theme and research problem;
- e) Literature review;
- f) Theoretical framework;
- g) Justification: academic and social relevance of the Pre-Project;
- h) General and specific objectives;
- i) Methodology: approach and methodological strategies;
- j) Schedule of activities;
- k) [References].

O. For the Master's Course, attach to the Questionnaire, in a single file, containing front and back of the Diploma or the Certificate of Completion of the Undergraduate Course, according to the intended level, issued by the institution where the degree was obtained, or Declaration that the candidate is a probable graduating student of the course, issued by a higher education institution, provided that the completion of said undergraduate degree occurs before the period for enrollment in the graduate course offered herein. The official transcript issued by the institution with the status of Formando (graduating), Formado (graduated) or Concluído (completed) may be sent. The documentary proof must be signed;

P. For the Doctoral Course, attach to the Questionnaire, in a single file, containing front and back of the Diploma or the Certificate of Completion of the Undergraduate Course and Diploma and Certificate of the Master's Course, according to the intended level, issued by the institution where the degree was obtained, or Declaration that the candidate is a probable graduating student of the course, issued by a higher education institution, provided that the completion of said Master's degree occurs before the period for enrollment in the graduate course offered herein. The documentary proof must be signed;

Q. Attach to the Questionnaire in a single file, the completed Scoring Table (Annex M) and the Lattes Curriculum (available on the electronic page <http://lattes.cnpq.br/>), in QLattes format;

R. The QLattes must be duly documented, with a copy of each of the titles and activities, organized in the sequence of the Scoring Table. Exclusively the documentary evidence of the last 05 (five) years (2021 to 2026) referring to the "Criteria for curriculum scoring," informed in ANNEX M of this [Notice], must be sent.

2. Other curriculum models will not be accepted. Only the documentation of the items that can be scored in the Scoring Table available in this Notice will be considered. Do not include other [items].
3. Failure to fill out the Scoring Table will result in the elimination of the candidate;
4. Applications will not be accepted, nor will documents be received by any means other than those indicated in this [Notice];
5. An application request that is not in accordance with the strict terms of the items of this [Notice] will not be accepted;
6. Omission in providing mandatory information or documents by the candidate will result in the immediate denial of their application [request];
7. The inclusion of any document after the closing of the application period will not be accepted;
8. PPGP is not responsible for the non-receipt of an application request via the internet due to technical reasons of the computers, communication failures, communication line congestion, as well as other factors of a technical nature that make the transfer [impossible].

6. OF THE SELECTION PROCESS AND EVALUATION OF CANDIDATES

1. Information regarding the vacancies available by Research Lines, Research Pre-Project, oral defense of the Pre-Project, distribution of the score in the evaluation of the Lattes Curriculum is available in an Annex to this Notice (ANNEXES A and [M]);

2. To obtain approval, candidates competing for the general vacancies must obtain a grade of 7.0 (seven) in the eliminatory stages of the selection process, considering the weights for each stage (ANNEX C). In the case of candidates opting for the quota system vacancies and UFAL servers, the grade will be 6.00 (six), according to ANNEX [C];
3. The evaluation process of the Research Pre-Project will be carried out by each research line of the [Program];
4. The sessions of evaluation and oral defense of the Research Pre-Project will be carried out by the professors of the research lines of PPGP/UFAL and will occur online on a video call or conference platform (via link) to be disclosed to the candidates via their e-mail, according to the calendar in ANNEX B. The maintenance of the video open during the entire evaluation and defense session is mandatory. There will be no screen sharing with the board for any presentation of document or slides, under penalty of elimination in this [stage];
5. The sessions of Evaluation and Oral Defense of the Pre-Project will be carried out online on a video call or conference platform used for the session and recorded in audio.

Sole Paragraph. In the event of malfunctioning of the network or the platform used for the evaluation, an occurrence beyond the reach of the Subcommittee responsible for the session, another day and time will be agreed upon with the candidate for the evaluation to take place. In this case, upon resumption of the session, the candidate will have the time remaining to them from the [presentation];

6. Regarding the tests and acts subject to audio recording, the storage in an appropriate location of the media of the recorded tests and acts by the Subcommittee [is guaranteed];
7. For the curriculum analysis, the scoring table indicated in ANNEX M of this [Notice] will be used;
8. Candidates will be selected up to the number of vacancies provided for in this Notice. The vacancies will be filled in descending order of average score obtained by the candidate, respecting the limitation of vacancies per Research Line in each [Course];

9. A candidate may be approved, but not selected, observing the descending order of classification and the number of vacancies per Research Line in each Course (ANNEX [A]);
10. In case of a tie in grades, the criterion of the score of the titles examination will be used to break the tie among the [candidates];
11. In case of remaining vacancies, the transfer of approved candidates may occur, including to another Research Line of the Program, provided that they adapt and are accepted by the [advisor];
12. If there are not enough approved candidates to fill the offered vacancies, the vacancies may remain unfilled at the end of the Selection [Process].

7. OF THE FINAL RESULT AND APPEALS

1. The FINAL RESULTS will be disclosed according to the calendar contained in this notice and its annexes, exclusively by PROPEP/UFAL and the Program Coordination on their electronic pages;
2. The candidate, or their legal representative, may appeal the result of each stage. For the appeal, the candidate will have a period of up to 48 (forty-eight) hours, counted from the time of publication of the result of the said stage, according to the following procedure:

2.1. All appeals must be registered via SIGAA: access <http://sigaa.sig.ufal.br>, click on Stricto Sensu Graduate Studies, select the option "candidate area" – select the selection process to which they wish to file an appeal and register the request in the area destined for the appeals of the selection process. In the appeal, it is suggested to indicate precisely which item they consider to be correct, as well as any evidence of their allegations based on scientific literature. Strictly observe the deadlines established in ANNEX B – Selection Process Calendar. Appeals by other means will not be accepted;

2.2. Send notice of appeal registration to the Selection Committee by e-mail coordenacao.ppgpsi@ip.ufal.br. E-mail subject: "APPEAL REGISTRATION NOTICE 05-2026". The body of the e-mail must contain: name and application number of the [candidate].

ATTENTION: We emphasize that, in addition to registering the appeal in the SIGAA System, the candidate must send the notice of appeal registration to the e-mail coordenacao.ppgpsi@ip.ufal.br strictly observing the deadlines established in ANNEX B – Selection Process [Calendar].

3. Observation for appeal purposes:

- 3.1. The candidate must present a formal request, by e-mail (coordenacao.ppgpsi@ip.ufal.br), requesting the copy of their evaluation. The request for the evaluation copy must be only via e-mail. Requests for the evaluation copy by other means will not be accepted;
 - 3.2. The Selection Committee will respond to the e-mail with the evaluation copy to the candidate so that they can analyze and, if applicable, can [appeal];
 - 3.3. The candidate must present an appeal, duly substantiated regarding their request, which will be submitted to the Selection [Committee];
 - 3.4. The appeal will be analyzed and will receive Granted or Denied, according to the [merit];
 - 3.5. After the final result, the candidate may appeal to PROPEP, within a period of up to 72 (seventy-two) hours, counted from the time of publication. For this, a process must be opened in the General Protocol of UFAL (Rectorate), addressing it to PROPEP/CPG (Graduate Studies Coordination).
4. The appeals presented, at each stage, will be forwarded for analysis to the examining board, which will be responsible for issuing an initial conclusive analysis of the matter, with all members who participated in the [stage] necessarily participating in the analysis of the appeals.

8. OF ENROLLMENT AND BEGINNING OF COURSES

1. Those entitled to enroll in the GRADUATE PROGRAM IN PSYCHOLOGY are the APPROVED AND CLASSIFIED candidates, respecting the limits of the vacancies established in this Notice and in conformity with the availability of advisory vacancies per Research [Line];
2. The institutional enrollment of the candidates selected for the Master's degree will be carried out by the Secretariat of the PPGP Coordination directly in SIGAA, using the Undergraduate Diploma or the degree conferral certificate that were attached at the time of application in the competition. The enrollment for the Doctoral degree will be carried out by the Secretariat of the PPGP Coordination directly in SIGAA, using the Undergraduate Diploma and the Master's Diploma or the Certificate of completion of the Master's course that were attached at the time of application in the competition. The institutional enrollment will be carried out after the homologation of the Final Result of the [Process];

3. For the Master's degree, students with an Undergraduate Diploma or Certificate of degree conferral, issued by official institutions recognized by the [MEC], may have their institutional enrollment carried out in the Graduate Program in Psychology;
4. For the Doctoral degree, candidates with an Undergraduate Diploma and Master's Diploma or Certificate of completion of the Master's course, issued by official institutions recognized by the [MEC], may have their institutional enrollment carried out in the Graduate Program in Psychology;
5. In the case of a foreign candidate or holder of a diploma issued by a foreign institution, the candidate must present a revalidation process by national institutions in the terms of Law No. 9,394/96 (LDB), as well as in Resolutions No. 01/2001; 01/2002 and 02/2005 of the National Council of Education – CNE;
6. In the case of a foreign candidate, the presentation of a [visa] is necessary;
7. The approved candidate will be considered withdrawn if they do not complete the enrollment in the disciplines within the period determined by the current calendar, referring to the semester 2027.1, which will be published on the website of the [Program];
8. In case of withdrawal from enrollment, non-enrollment or existence of vacancies, the call of approved candidates will be made, considering the classification order, according to the provisions of this notice and the availability of [vacancies];
9. Only those candidates who are selected in the quota modality may compete in other internal selection notices of PPGP, uniquely, in the same [modality].

9. OF THE FINAL PROVISIONS

1. The candidate's application implies knowledge and acceptance of the norms and conditions established in this notice and its respective [annexes];
2. The candidate will be excluded from the selection process if they:
 - a) Fail to attend any part of the selection process;
 - b) Present behavior considered incompatible with the fairness of the competition, at the exclusive criterion of the Examining Subcommittees;
 - c) Do not present the original of an official photo identification document at the presentation and oral defense of the Research Pre-Project;

1. EVALUATION OF THE RESEARCH PRE-PROJECT

Candidates must submit, at the time of application, a Research Pre-Project linked to the intended Research Line, as specified in this notice. The evaluation process of the Research Pre-Project will be carried out by the research lines of PPGP/UFAL. The criteria for the analysis and scoring of the text of the Pre-Project are:

Table 5 - Criteria for analysis and scoring of the text of the Research Pre-Project

	CRITERIA	POINTS
EVALUATION - RESEARCH PRE-PROJECT	1. General structure of the proposal, quality of writing and organization of the text within academic norms (clarity, conciseness and objectivity). Abstract. Presence of all minimum necessary items.	1.0
	2. Problematization of the research theme with justification of the proposal.	1.0
	3. Formulation of the research objectives.	1.0
	4. Domain and pertinence of the theoretical framework.	2.0
	5. Literature review for the development of the Pre-Project.	1.5
	6. Domain and pertinence of the methodological elements for the development of the Pre-Project.	2.0
	7. Adequacy of the schedule of activities to the completion deadline of the Master's/Doctoral degree.	0.5
	8. Adequacy of the Research Pre-Project to the intended Research Line and to the academic work of the intended advisor.	1.0

2. EVALUATION OF THE PRESENTATION AND ORAL DEFENSE OF THE RESEARCH PRE-PROJECT

In the conduct of the Presentation and Oral Defense of the Research Pre-Project, the candidate must present the original of an official photo identification document. Those who fail to do so will be eliminated, according to item 9.2 of this [Notice].

The presentation and oral defense of the Research Pre-Project will be carried out by the candidate by the research lines of PPGP/UFAL, and will be recorded in audio using an online platform to be presented at the time of publication of the schedule of the [defenses].

In the event of malfunctioning of the network or the platform used for the evaluation, occurrences independent of the reach of the Subcommittee responsible for the session, another day and time will be agreed upon with the candidate for the evaluation to take place. In this case, upon resumption of the session, the candidate will have the time remaining to them from the [presentation].

In this stage, only the presence of the proposing candidate and of the subcommittees that compose the respective Research Lines will be permitted. A candidate may not attend the Presentation and Oral Defense of the Research Pre-Project of another candidate. The candidate must use, exclusively, the version of the Pre-Project at the time of their presentation and oral defense. There will be, therefore, no screen sharing with the board for any presentation of document or slides, under penalty of elimination in this [stage].

The presentation and oral defense of the Research Pre-Project will be carried out in two moments: in the first, the candidate will make the presentation, with an initial maximum time of 10 minutes, when they will briefly expose their Research Pre-Project, emphasizing its central objective and its pertinence to the Research Line indicated at the time of their application. Then, they will proceed to the oral defense of the Research Pre-Project, which will have a maximum duration of 15 minutes and will include examination on the presented proposal, according to the criteria specified in Table [6].
